

• • •

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	xi
Note on Citation, Translation, and Transliteration	xiii
PART ONE: The Concept of Inbetweenness and the Poetry of Chekhov’s Prose	1
<hr/>
PART TWO: Amidst the Shades of Meaning: The Immediate Textual Context	33
<hr/>
Chapter One. Sentence-Line: The Density of Semantic Exchange	35
Chapter Two. Paragraph-Stanza: A Network of Relationships	59
PART THREE: Amidst the Shades of Meaning: The Context of the Entire Work	87
<hr/>
Chapter One. Image—Motif—World	89
Chapter Two. From Clouds of Dust to Clouds on the Horizon: “The Beauties”	125

x ■ ■ ■ “Dew on the Grass”: The Poetics of Inbetweenness in Chekhov

PART FOUR: Between the “Ocean” and the “Sky”:
Chekhov’s Spatial Rhymes 149

AFTERWORD. Inbetweenness: The Poetics of Life 185

Bibliography 191
Index 205