This publication was made possible by the Fritz-Thyssen-Stiftung, Cologne.

The illustration on the cover is taken from the Illustrated London News 43/1234 (1863), p. 561. It depicts "Family Worship in a Plantation in South Carolina". An old slave preaches, while the white slave owner and his family listen (cf. <http://beck.library.emory.edu/iln/browse.php?id=iln43.1234.007>, archived at: <http://www.webcitation.org/6QCJTRe8t>).

The polycentric history of World Christianity cannot be understood without taking into account the plurality of actors, the multiplicity of indigenous initiatives, the varieties of regional centers of expansion, and the many local forms of Christianity.
