

Contents

Foreword	9
The Bretton Woods Conference: Starting out with Blackmail	13
The Post-War Boom: The IMF Casts its Net	21
Chile 1973: Embarking upon the Path of Neoliberalism	25
Laying out a Course of Action: The IMF's "Structural Adjustment Programs"	31
The Latin American Debt Crisis: The IMF as Global Crisis Manager	37
The Effects of "Structural Adjustment": Growing Resistance against the IMF	45
"Shock Therapy" for the Soviet Union: The IMF and the Reintroduction of Capitalism	49
Post-Apartheid South Africa: The IMF and the ANC Join Forces against the People	59
Yugoslavia and the IMF: Setting the Stage for War in Europe	69
The IMF and the Asian Crisis: A Demonstration of Power	81

Wage Caps and Higher Prices:
The IMF's Policy of "Poverty Reduction"	91
The Argentine Crisis and the IMF:
Enforcing the largest State Bankruptcy ever	101
Globalization and Financialization:
The Driving Powers behind the IMF	129
The Financial Crisis of 2007/2008 and the IMF:
The Calm before the Storm	139
Iceland's Banking Crash of 2008:
The IMF Turns its Eye on Europe	145
Ireland and the IMF:
Causing an Explosion of Poverty	155
The Euro Crisis and the Troika:
Placing Europe under Forced Administration	165
Greece and the Troika:
Bringing Hunger back to Europe	175
Cyprus and the IMF:
After Looting Comes Expropriation	187
The IMF after Cyprus:
Institutionalizing Theft	201
Mountains of Debt, Social Inequality, Revolution:
Ring in the End of the IMF?	209
Bibliography	217
Image Credits	222